

Constitution Translated for Kids

By Cathy Travis

When books are sold directly, in bulk, from Constitution Translated for Kids to educators – or benefactors purchasing them for schools or educators – there's a 40% discount off the list price in bookstores, plus shipping and handling.

There are three versions of the book: the flagship hardcover version, the soft back version, and the Spanish language version.

We only sell books with the discount for orders by the box (the number of books per box varies, see below).
